About This Production

A frenetic black comedy that sees drama critic Mortimer Brewster tackling his crazy family and the New York police as he debates whether or not to marry the woman he loves.

His two spinster aunts murder lonely old men by offering them homemade elderberry wine laced with arsenic, strychnine and 'just a pinch' of cyanide.

Meanwhile one of their brothers, who believes he is Teddy Roosevelt, digs locks for the Panama Canal in the cellar...

About Proscenium

Proscenium was founded in 1924. Since then, our aim has been to present classic and contemporary plays to as wide an audience as possible.
